Eagle Bluff will be offering three residential camps in 2012. All camps are four days in length with the exception of the Forkhorn Camp which is six days. Austin Chapter 10 will provide scholarships ranging from $225 to $250 depending on which camp is selected. Campers are responsible for the $50 non-refundable deposit to each camp. Those selecting the Forkhorn camp will need to pay an additional $80 to attend this camp. Each camper must furnish their own transportation to and from Eagle Bluff.

Directions to Eagle Bluff:

Interstate 90 to Highway 16.

Highway 16 to Lanesboro.

Go north on Highway 250 for about ½ mile until you are approaching the downtown area.

Turn left on County Road 8 and travel 2 miles.

Turn right on County Road 21 (following brown directional signs) and travel 1 ¼ miles.

Turn right on Goodview Road and travel 2 ½ miles to the Eagle Bluff Campus.

Call Bob Wangsness at 433-4686 with questions regarding the scholarship program. For more information on Eagle Bluff Environmental Learning Center and summer camp descriptions visit their website at: www.eagle-bluff.org/camp-descriptions.html.
